

CHOICES IN EDUCATION

VIDEO COMPETITION

As confusion surrounding educational options grows, it's time the public hears more real-life stories from students and parents on how educational choice has made a difference in their lives.

Millions of families have benefited from the power to choose the best learning environment for their child, but there are still more that need access to a wider variety of educational opportunities.

Submissions open October 25 - December 1

For more information, visit www.ChoicesInEd.org

Tell Your Story

Film a 45-120 second video on one of the following topics:

- How educational choice made a difference in my life
- Why I need access to educational choice options

Who is eligible?

- Students, parents or alumni of existing choice programs (public school choice, charter, magnet, private school, virtual learning, or homeschool)
- Students and families who want choice in their state
- While videos can feature students, the entrant must be 18 years or older

Judging and Prizes

Two People's Choice winners will be chosen through public voting. A panel of judges that includes representatives from national organizations representing the full spectrum of educational choice will select the grand prize winners and runners-up.

- 3 Grand Prize Winners - $15,000 cash prize
- 2 People's Choice Winners - $5,000 cash prize
- 3 Runners-up - $5,000 cash prize

The winners will be announced during National School Choice Week, Jan. 21-27, 2018.

For more information, visit www.ChoicesInEd.org or email Joe Follick at joe@excelined.org